Assessment Period 2016-2021

B.M.S. COLLEGE OF LAW, BENGALURU

Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi, Bengaluru-560019

CRITERION 2 – Teaching- Learning and Evaluation

Key Indicator – 2.6 Student Performance and Learning Outcome

Metric No- 2.6.1

Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and Course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution..

Submitted to

THE NATIONAL ASSESSMENT AND ACCREDITATION COUNCIL

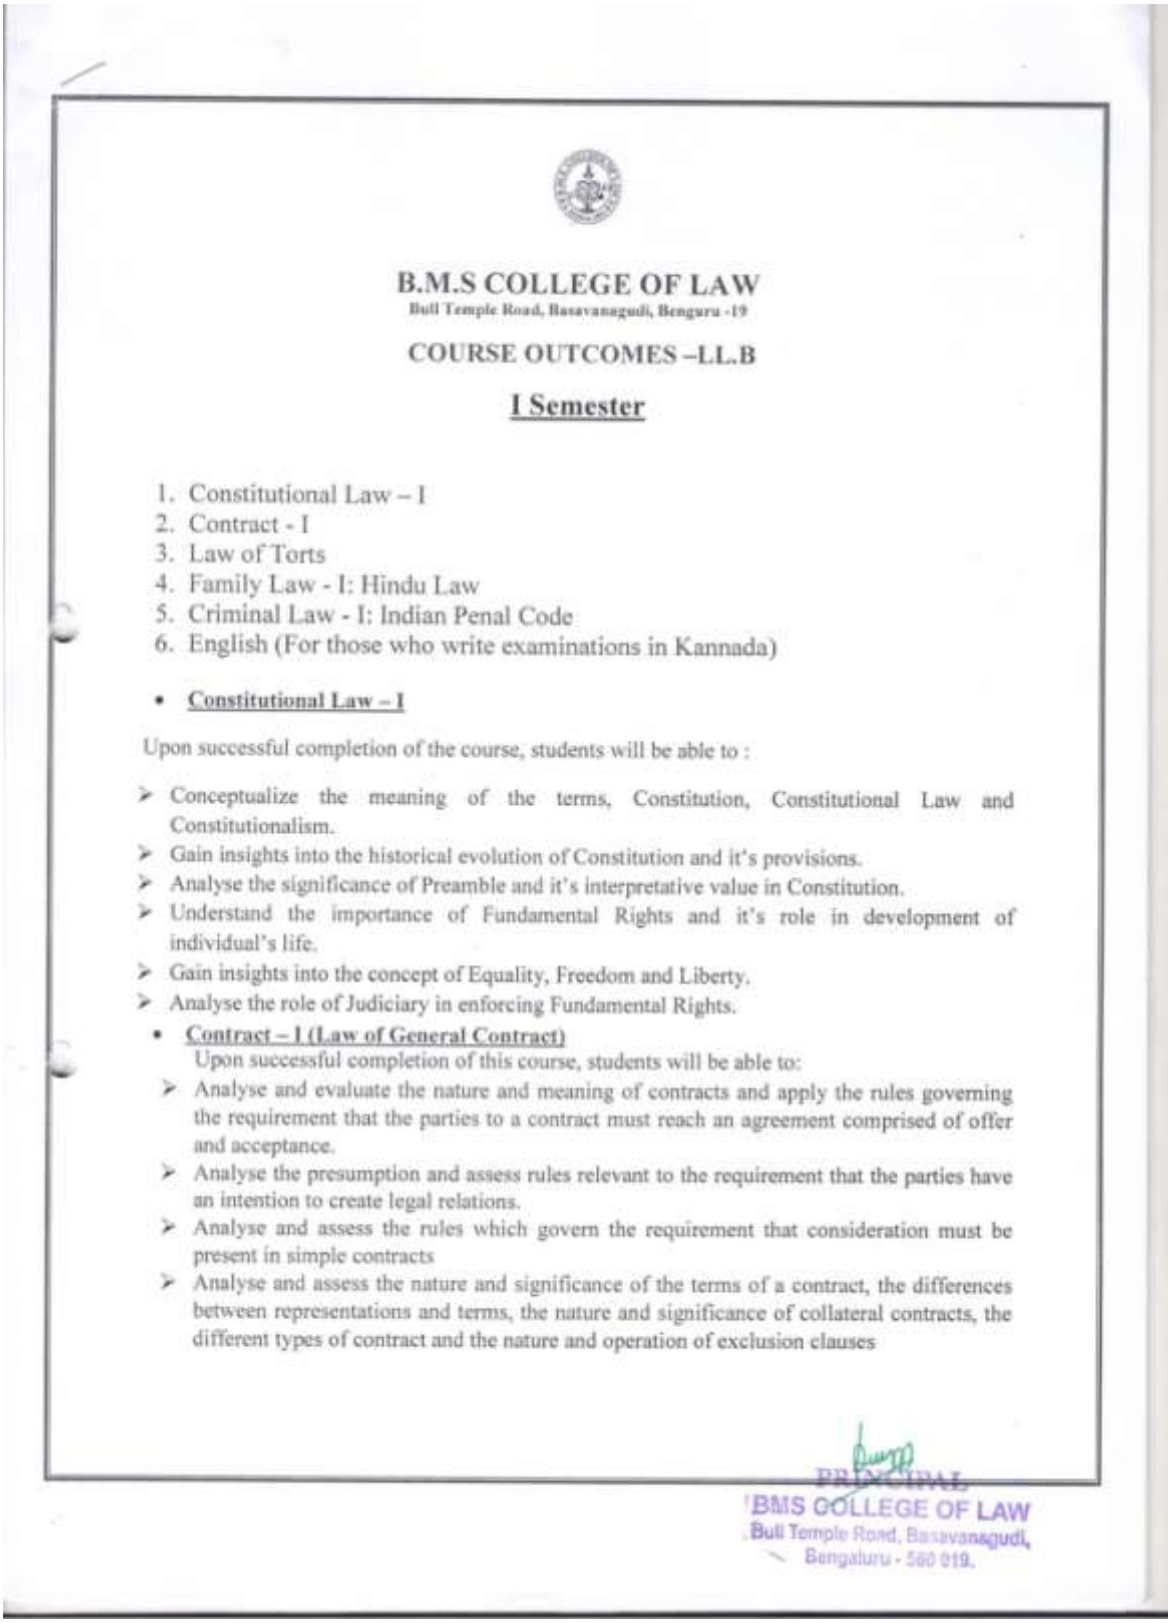

Metric No- 2.6.1

Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and Course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.

INDEX

SL. NO.	PARTICULARS	PAGE. NO.
1	Details of Course Outcome- LL.B	3-16
2	Details of Course Outcome- B.Com., LL.B	17-34
3	Details of Course Outcome- B.A.,LL.B	35-52

Details of Course outcome

B.M.S COLLEGE OF LAW
Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi, Bengaluru -19

COURSE OUTCOMES –LL.B

I Semester

1. Constitutional Law – I
2. Contract - I
3. Law of Torts
4. Family Law - I: Hindu Law
5. Criminal Law - I: Indian Penal Code
6. English (For those who write examinations in Kannada)

- Constitutional Law – I

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to :

- Conceptualize the meaning of the terms, Constitution, Constitutional Law and Constitutionalism.
- Gain insights into the historical evolution of Constitution and it's provisions.
- Analyse the significance of Preamble and it's interpretative value in Constitution.
- Understand the importance of Fundamental Rights and it's role in development of individual's life.
- Gain insights into the concept of Equality, Freedom and Liberty.
- Analyse the role of Judiciary in enforcing Fundamental Rights.

- Contract – I (Law of General Contract)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Analyse and evaluate the nature and meaning of contracts and apply the rules governing the requirement that the parties to a contract must reach an agreement comprised of offer and acceptance.
- Analyse the presumption and assess rules relevant to the requirement that the parties have an intention to create legal relations.
- Analyse and assess the rules which govern the requirement that consideration must be present in simple contracts
- Analyse and assess the nature and significance of the terms of a contract, the differences between representations and terms, the nature and significance of collateral contracts, the different types of contract and the nature and operation of exclusion clauses

PRINCIPAL
BMS COLLEGE OF LAW
Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi,
Bengaluru - 560 019.

- Determine and analyse the legal principles relating to the position of persons who lack contractual capacity to enter into contracts, comparing contrasts and the rights and liabilities of persons with whom they contract.
- Distinguish between and assess the meaning and effects of consensual problems of contracts with reference to mistake, misrepresentation, duress, undue influence.
- Determine the legal principles relating to privity of contract and assignment of contract.

- Law of Torts

After the Completion of the Course the students will be able to understand

- The prerequisites for a wrongful act in order to be classified as a tort.
- Distinguish tort from breach of contract, crime etc.
- To illustrate the real world issues and find out if the defendant can justify the tortuous act on the grounds of defense available.
- To figure out the circumstances when the employer, principal, State are liable for the torts committed by employee, agent or public Officer.
- To apply the principles of negligence solving the real world problems. For example in cases of keeper of animals, manufacture of certain products etc.
- To appreciate the remedies and injunctions available in cases of nuisance.

- Family Law-I (Hindu Law)

After the completion of this course, the students will be able to:

- Identify and describe the various sources and schools of Hindu Law.
- Demonstrate and understanding of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.
- Examine and analyze the concept of marriage and relate it to the changing nature of marriage and matrimonial remedies.
- Analyze the concept of Hindu Undivided Family.
- Identify the provisions of Hindu Succession Act of 1956 and its amendments.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the core concepts of Minority and guardianship, adoption laws and to analyze it from sociological perspective in the society.
- To employ research skills such as collecting relevant data from reliable legal sources, retrieving judgments, articles and other material from online legal databases, evaluating judicial reasoning employed by courts.

- Criminal Law -I- Indian Penal Code
  - Students will be able to understand the meaning of crime distinction between the crime and kinds of wrongs.
  - Students will be able to understand General Exceptions, Abetment, Criminal Conspiracy, Offences against State, Offences against Public Tranquility, Offences relating to Stamps & Government and Punishments relating to all the offences.
  - The various kinds of offences affecting human life, causing miscarriage and distinguish between hurt and Grievous Hurt.
  - The distinction between the Kidnapping and Abduction, Meaning of Rape punishment for Rape and offences against property.

- To understand the section relating to Mischief, offences relating to marriage, Defamation and punishment for Defamation.

- English (For those who write examinations in Kannada)
- Understand the relevance of building a strong social structure as responsibility of lawyers, role of English language in law.
- Understand legal reasoning, critical thinking and analysis.
- Analyse the features of English language, importance of vocabulary, contextual meaning of words and their usage.
- Acquires knowledge of English Grammar and Composition and facilitating students to comprehend idiomatic expressions, Legal words and their usage, analysis of formal correspondence and unseen passage.

II Semester

1. Constitutional Law - II
2. Contract - II
3. Labour Law - I
4. Property Law
5. Family Law - II: Mohammaden Law & Indian Succession Act.
6. Kannada/Kannada Kali (For non- Kannadiga Students)

- Constitutional Law –II

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Conceptualize the meaning of terms, Federal Government, Division of Powers and Separation of Powers.
- Analyse the scheme of distribution of Legislative and Executive Powers among the Centre and State as found in Constitution.
- Gain insights into the composition, procedure of appointment, removal of Judges and jurisdictional powers of the Supreme Courts and High Courts.
- Analyse the Constitutional provisions relating to President, Governors and Parliament.
- Conceptualize the meaning of term, Emergency, the types of Emergency and procedure for proclaiming the Emergency
- Gain insights into the concept and procedure for Amendments to Constitution.

- Contract – II
  - On completion of the course students will be able to:
  - Understand the concept of indemnity, guarantee, pledge and bailment
  - Analyse the nature of contract of agency and the rights and liabilities of agent
  - Examine the condition of a valid ratification & different modes of termination of agency.
  - Understand the sale of goods act scope and importance in the law of contract
  - Critically evaluate essentials elements of partnership & the different modes of dissolution.
  - Explain the condition and warranty in contract of a sale of goods.
- Labour Law –I

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to :

- Analyze the historical background of Trade Union
- Discuss the various Constitutional provisions related to Trade Union.
- Explain the procedures for the registration and cancellation of the Trade Union.
- Discuss the methods of Amalgamation and Recognition of the Trade Union
- Explain the Immunities of the Registered Trade Union.

- Explain the various authorities, their Powers and functions under the Industrial Dispute Act.
- Critically analyze the Voluntary Arbitration U/S 10.
- Explain the Compulsory Adjudication, Composition, qualification, jurisdiction and their powers.
- Explain the procedure for claiming and Computation of the Compensation under Employees Compensation Act, 1923-
- Discuss the Appointment of Commissioner and their Jurisdiction and Powers under Employees Compensation Act, 1923.
- Trace the various authorities under the Payment of wages Act, 1936
- Discuss the definitions of employed persons, factory, industrial and other establishment, wages, etc.
- Discuss the various provisions relating to health, safety and welfare of the workers under the Factories Act, 1948.

Property Law

- Analyse and evaluate the meaning of Immovable Property.
- Scrutinize and apply the rules governing transfer between inter-vivos.
- Evaluate the principles of Lis Pendense and Transfer by an Ostensible owner.
- Analyse rules relevant for Sale, Mortgage, lease, Gift and Actionable Claim.
- Determine the rights of the parties in transaction relating to Sale, Mortgage, lease, Gift and Actionable Claim.

- Family Law -II- Mohammaden Law & Indian Succession Act
  - Will comprehend codified and uncodified portions of Islamic civil law.
  - Shall be able to apply legal provisions relating to marriage, Divorce, maintenance, succession
  - Understand the relevancy of Family courts Act and Indian Succession Act.
- Kannada / Kannada Kali
- Kannada
  - The students will be able to understand the terms used in Courts (Kanoonu Kannada)
- Kannada Kali

After the Completion of the Course the Students will be able to :

- Communicate in Kannada Language.
- Read Kannada .

III Semester

1. Jurisprudence
2. Labour Law –II
3. Law of Taxation
4. Criminal Law –II : Cr. P.C
5. Administrative Law

- Jurisprudence
  - Understand the concept of law in a philosophical and analytical manner.
  - Become reflective practitioners with the ability to move between doctrinal and philosophical argument essential for a critical and ethical practice of law.
  - Critically evaluate the sources of law and its application in the present day context.
  - Analyze various legal concepts like "rights", "duties", "personality" "ownership" and "possession".
  - Analyze the emergence and expansion of the concept of liability and critically evaluate the same in present day context.
- Labour Law –II

After the completion of the unit students will be able to

- Analyze the various Constitutional provisions related to labour welfare
- Explain the historical background and the main objectives of bonded labour abolition Act and discuss their problems and Punish for Bonded Labour
- Analyze the problems of Inter State Migration of Workers.
- Historical background of Inter State Migration of Workers Act,1979
- Trace the various authorities under the Minimum Wages Act, 1948
- Discuss the definitions of employed persons, factory, industrial and other establishment, wages, etc.
- The concept of Bonus- judicial interpretations and Constitutionality of the provision relating to Govt's power to exempt.
- Analyze the concept of bonus and Right to Share in profits
- Analyze the various provision relating to prohibition of child labour in certain establishments and processes-regulation of conditions of work- Penalties and Judicial Interpretation
- Discuss the laws relating to SEZ, its object, scope and implications.

- Law of Taxation

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Analyse and evaluate what is tax, why is it levied and its importance to the economy of the state.

- Scrutinize and apply what income is subjected to tax, how tax is assessed and how deductions take place.
- Evaluate the importance and advantages of GST over the previous indirect tax regime and how economic shifts occur.
- Analyse how the collection and distribution of revenue takes place. Also, they will be able to appreciate the importance of centre-state relations.
- Determine how customs work, how it is levied and regulation of SEZ Units.

- Criminal Law -II- Cr.P.C, JJ Act & Prohibition of Offenders Act

  At the end of the course, a student will be able to understand:

  - The system of criminal prosecution in India: who prosecutes; Process to Compel Appearance of Person, Process to Compel Production of Things, Right to speedy trial etc.
  - The legal rules relating to arrest and bail under the Criminal Procedure Act, The rights of arrested persons and to apply such rules in a factual scenario.
  - Describe principles applicable to the right to legal representation in Indian criminal trials and to apply such principles in a factual scenario.

- Administrative Law

  At the end of the course, a student will be able to understand:

  - The Nature Development of law relating to administration and effective means of administrative control. The Focus is on their role in protecting the rights of individuals against abuse of administration and adjudicatory powers of the administration and liability of administrative authorities.
  - Analyze and predict how unresolved or ambiguous administrative law questions could be resolved by the courts through an analysis of case law and the judicial method.
  - Identify, explain and apply the principles of administrative law covered in the course.

IV Semester

1. Public International Law
2. Optional –I : Human Rights Law and Practice / Insurance Law.
3. Optional Law –II : Banking Law / Right to Information
4. Clinical Course –I : Professional Ethics and Professional Accounting System
5. Clinical Course –II : Alternative Dispute Resolution System

- Public International Law

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to understand

- Students are in position to understand basic concepts of international law Foundation for international trade & economics.
- International relations in the legal perspectives
- Understand the sources on which they have to rely in an international cases

- Optional –I- Human Rights Law/Insurance Law.

Human Rights and Practice

- Trace the origin and jurisprudence of various human rights and get familiar with their conceptual analysis.
- To understand the value of human rights through the lens of different human rights organization. How are the problems related to human rights addressed on national and international level?
- To appreciate how law has intervened to solve the emerging problems related to human rights in different countries and what mechanisms and measures are adopted by those systems in order to ensure human rights protection and promotion.
- To analyze the legal remedies available to the Indian Citizens in case of violation of their human rights. What is the relationship between human rights and fundamental rights?
- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to violation of Human rights of the women, sensitive issues like harassment of women at work place, child labour, and pathos of the tribal community.

- Insurance

- Understand the concept of insurance, need for a regulation of insurance Business, Framework under the Insurance Act, 1938 and Insurance Regulatory and Development Act, 1999.
- Analyse insurance as a contract and important principles underlying insurance contract.
- Analyse the concept of life insurance and motor vehicle insurance and its application in the present day context.

- Analyse the emergence and expansion of the concept of marine insurance and critically evaluate the same in present day context.
- Evaluate other kinds of insurance in modern context.

Optional –II- Banking Law/ Right to Information

Banking Law

After Successful completion this unit the students will be able to; -

- Possess knowledge and understanding of substantive and procedural law. Students will possess the ability to perform legal analysis and reasoning, legal research, problem solving, and written and oral communication in the legal context.
- Conversant with banking law's historic development and how it shaped today's bank regulatory regime.
- Critically assess how Banking Institutions origin and Evolve, types and functions of banks Emerging of RBI in India .
- Students should be able to answers to questions of Evolution of Banking institution in India,
- Functions of Commercial Banks, Management and Functions of Reserve Bank of India.
- Students will also appreciate the role of RBI and other institutions like State Bank of India- UTI, IDBI, RRBs'-Local banks
- Know the objectives the Loans and advances – general Principles of good lending, Modes of securing advances - Advances against different types of securities
- Know the objectives and scope of the Negotiable Instruments, 1881 Act and meaning, definition and kinds of Negotiable.
- Know the objectives and scope of the relationship between banker and customer.
- Know the Ancillary services and e- banking services. Student will be able to understand and amylase the modern banking services e- banking and ancillary services of banker

- Right to Information
  - Understand the historical evolution as well as the constitutional background of the right to information.
  - The students will also get an overview regarding the objectives and operation of RTI Act, 2005 and the challenges in its application.
  - Comprehend the definition of public authorities and their obligations under the RTI Act. Moreover, the students will be able to analyze legislative provisions in the Act and concepts related to the same which will give them clarity about the framework of the Act.
  - Appraise in details the establishment of Central Information Commission as well as State Information Commissions. At the same time they will be aware of the power and functions of the commissions.
  - Introduced with the legislations which make similar provisions or adverse provisions regarding freedom of information.

- Equipped with a broader point of view regarding right to information by linking RTI to different human rights legislations in a comparative perspective.
- get an overview of the Prevention of Corruption Act and at the same time they will get an exposure to the various institutions established to combat corruption and their limitations

- Clinical Course -I –Professional Ethics & Professional Accounting System
  - Practice the moral values that ought to guide the Advocates profession.
  - Discover of the set of justified moral principles of obligation, ideals that ought to be endorsed by the Advocates and apply them to concrete situations.
  - If professional ethics not followed then consequences –hearing by the Bar Council Proceedings and punishments.
  - Duties and responsibilities towards court, client, general public, society and nation
  - Contempt of Court by the lawyers and consequences
- Clinical Course –II – Alternative Dispute Resolution
  - Explain ADRS in ancient, medieval and modern period. Analyze the different methods of dispute resolution; Inquisitorial method, Adversial method, other methods-both formal and informal like Arbitration, conciliation, Negotiation, Mediation, etc. Explain the Advantages and disadvantages of ADR method.
  - Define and discuss what is arbitration, meaning, general principles of arbitration, kinds of arbitration, arbitral award
  - Define and explain what conciliation is? Meaning, different kinds of conciliation
  - Discuss negotiation explain various approaches and phases to negotiation
  - Explain the Essential characteristics of mediation process

V Semester

1. Company Law
2. Civil Procedure Code and Limitation Act
3. Optional –III : Intellectual Property Rights-I/ Penology & Victimology.
4. Optional – IV : Interpretation of Statutes and Principles of Legislation / Competition Law
5. Clinical Course –III: Drafting , Pleading and Conveyance

- Company Law

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Analyse and evaluate the basics features of company laws and basic concepts unlined under the Companies Act, 2013.

- Scrutinize and apply what is meant by AOA, who are directors, their role and ethics to be maintained.
- Evaluate the importance of shares and their allotment. Understand how to manage the companies. Know how the company can be wound up.
- Analyse how the SEBI plays role in company's affairs, the powers and functions and related actions
- Determine how FEMA impacts the functioning of the company. Know the restrictions imposed by Competition Act, 2002.

- Civil Procedure Code & Limitation Act

- To acquaint students with the jurisdiction of civil courts.
- Introduce students to the rules of pleadings in civil matters.
- Equip students with the knowledge of different stages in a civil proceeding and the procedure at each of these stages.
- Introduce students to the execution proceedings.
- Acquaints students with remedies available to a party aggrieved by the order of a court.
- Make the students aware of some special suits.
- Introduces students to the miscellaneous matters such as inter-pleader suits, caveats, inherent powers of the courts, etc.
- Equip students with the knowledge of the important provisions of Limitation Act
- Differentiate substantive and procedural law and explain the inter-relationship between the two areas
- Define personal and subject matter jurisdiction involved in civil litigation matters
- Define the area of remedies in civil litigation matters
- Draft pleadings and discovery document in proper court format
- Explain the role of a paralegal in civil litigation matters

- Optional -III- Intellectual Property Rights/ Penology & Victimology

Intellectual Property Rights –I

- Trace the origin and evolution of the emerging field of intellectual property rights and to get familiar with their conceptual analysis and its significance in today's world.
- To understand the value of trademark and how one gets a registered trademark. What mechanism is to be followed in case of its infringement?
- To appreciate how law can solve the emerging problems in the cyber space every now and then. Policies of data protection, cyber frauds etc.
- To identify the different geographical indications in India and abroad, to establish the difference between trademark and geographical indications.

- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to international and domestic IPRs. How to balance both the laws for a proper functioning of the IPR regime

- Penology & Victimology

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to understand :

- The Origin, Development , Definition and Scope of Penology Nature and Scope of Punishment General Principles or rules of Punishment Purpose of Punishment, Kinds of Discarded Punishments, Right of the State to Punish.
- Existing Modes or Forms or Types or kinds of Punishment.
- Processes and Policies of sentencing Concept of capital punishment (death sentence).
- Victim's Justice in India
- Rights of victims
- Legislative and Administrative Measures

- Optional –IV- Interpretation of Statutes & Principles of Legislation/Competition Law
- Interpretation of Statutes
  - Explain the primary canons and subsidiary rules of Statutory Interpretation.
  - Evaluate and analyze the various kinds of Internal and External Aids for the Interpretation.
  - Discuss, explain and evaluate the Operation, Commencement, Repeal and Expiry of the Statute- and its impact on other statues as well as rights and liabilities of the parties that have been incurred or acquired as the case may be
  - Analyze the Principles of Interpretation with special reference to the nature of the statute like fiscal, penal and remedial statute.
  - Explain the Life history of the Bentham, his works, his theories and the principle of utility.
- Competition Law
  - Understand the requirements of a free market economy and the role of Competition Laws to ensure there is fair competition.
  - Understand the development of Competition Law in other countries and to take a comparative approach to the study of Competition Law.
  - Understand the origins of Antitrust laws in India and an overview of all the anti competitive practices prohibited under the Act.
  - Understand how the CCI protects the consumers interest at the macro level and its composition and functions
- Clinical Course -III- Drafting, Pleading & Conveyance

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to draft pleadings, Conveyances and other relevant documents.

VI Semester

1. Law of Evidence
2. Environmental Law
3. Optional Law –V: Intellectual Property –II / White Collar Crimes .
4. Optional VI – Land Law/ Law relating to International Trade Economics
5. Clinical Course –IV : Moot Court Exercise and Internship

- Evidence
- Understand the importance of law of evidence in administration of justice and basic principles of evidence.
- Comprehend the relevancy value of various types of admissions and confessions.
- Analyse the kinds of evidence and its admissibility.
- Appreciate and deeply understand the role of law of evidence in a trial.
- Appreciate properly the evidence stage of trial mainly witness examination.

- Environmental Law

After successful completion of this unit students will be able to

- Understand the terms such as environment, ecology , pollution, pollutant and historical background of environmental jurisprudence - both pre colonial and post colonial; that paved way for environmental conservation.
- Analyzing several case laws; the students will be able to appreciate the Judicial Activism in Environmental Protection and how environmental jurisprudence evolved incorporating various environmental doctrines in municipal laws.
- Appreciate the Judicial Activism in Environmental Protection and how has environmental jurisprudence evolved incorporating various environmental doctrines in municipal laws.
- Analyze the impact of these international conventions and its contribution in shaping Indian Environmental Jurisprudence.
- Acquainted with the general powers of the Central Government to prevent, control and abate the environment under the Act.

- Optional -V- Intellectual Property Rights/ White Collar Crimes
- Intellectual Property Rights –II

- Trace the origin of various copyright laws and get familiar with their conceptual analysis.
- To understand the value of biodiversity, biological resources and importance of traditional knowledge. What mechanism is to be followed in case of conflict between traditional knowledge and technological developments?
- To appreciate how law can solve the emerging problems of the farmers by providing farmer's rights. The Stake holders involved in the process and role played by the tribunals to overcome the hurdles.

- Students would be able to understand the legislations related to designs in India and abroad, and the implications on infringement of designs law.
- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to international and domestic IPRs. And how the conflict arising between them is resolved.

- White Collar Crimes

- To learn the Indian approaches to socio-economic offences- forms of privileged class deviance.
- Sstudents will be able to understand the concept of White Collar Crimes and also Prevention of Corruption laws.
- Students will be able to read and analyse judgments and about the roles and functions of Police and politicians' deviance; N.N.Vorha Committee Report; Lokpal and Lokayukta institutions.
- Students will be able to understand the meaning of legal professionalism and also in medical profession.
- Students will be able to understand the laws relating to offences against sexual harassment and scheduled tribes.

- Optional -VI- Land Law/Law Relating to International Trade Economics
- Land Law

After successful completion of this unit students will be able

- To learn about the concept of land, its use and benefits, rights and obligations of citizen and authority by govt. over the land and land administration.
- To learn about the powers, functions and limitations of revenue authorities and its impact on the land holders.
- To understand the importance of special land law and vitality of the disadvantaged communities.
- To learn about the trends in the real estate services and its importance.

- International Trade Economics

- Study on origin, development and functioning of WTO as trade regulatory body.
- Will understand the development of trade in international level.
- Focus on concepts like FDI norms, TBT, SPS, Dumping and related areas
- Shall appreciate the process and conditions of technology transfer, foreign
- Collaborations, NRI investments, etc. Shall be in a position to know the policies and rules regulating international trade.

- Clinical Course -IV- Moot Court & Internship

This course of Moot Court exercise is designed to hone advocacy skills in the students. Moot Courts are simulation exercises geared up to endow students with facility in preparation of written submissions and planning, organising and marshalling arguments in the given time so as to convince the presiding officer.

PRINCIPAL
B.M.S. COLLEGE OF LAW
Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi,
Bengaluru - 560 019.

B.M.S COLLEGE OF LAW

Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi, Bengaru -19

COURSE OUTCOMES – B.Com, LL.B

I Semester

1. General English
2. Business Environment
3. Micro- Economics
4. Financial Accounting
5. Legal Methods

- General English

- To enhance the advocacy skills of students.
- Make them understand the relevance of building a strong social structure as responsibility of lawyers.
- Setting a path for legal reasoning, critical thinking and analysis.
- Understand the features of English language, importance of vocabulary, contextual meaning of words and their usage.
- Helps in logical thought, legal reasoning and facilitates in understanding common problems.
- Introducing them to the intricacies of the legal reasoning, critical thinking and analysis.

- Business Environment

After the Completion of the Course the students will be able to

- Understand the nature of business activities and the environments within which they function, with particular reference to Hong Kong situations.
- Knowledge of theoretical and practical aspects of the operation of the various types of business organizations.
- Understand the role of business activities in the modern world.
- Understand the changing and integrated nature of business problems and an ability to explore and deal with these problems.
- The skill of analysis, synthesis and evaluation in the context of business decisions.
- Acquire the competencies and attitudes in playing the various roles in the business world.

PRINCIPAL
BMS COLLEGE OF LAW
Bull Temple Road

- Micro –Economics
  - Understand scope of microeconomics, its uses and importance.
  - Application of microeconomics concept to solve economic issues.
  - Difference between cardinal analysis and ordinal analysis.
  - Application of Law of Diminishing utility and Law of equi-marginal utility.
  - have in depth knowledge about law of demand and law of supply
  - Application of Demand and Supply
  - Study about relevance of Elasticity
  - Concepts of Production function
  - Application of different cost curves.
  - Relevance of laws of production function.
- Financial Accounting
  - Students will recognize commonly used financial statements, their components and how information from business transactions flows into these statements
  - Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of preparation of Financial Statements and or financial schedules in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles through analysis and synthesis of information as well..
  - Students will learn relevant financial accounting career skills, applying both quantitative and qualitative knowledge to their future careers in business.
  - Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of various advanced accounting issues related to Financial Accounting within a global and or ethical framework
  - Students will be able to conceptually define Accounting and Book Keeping
  - Students will be able to identify the accounting rules required for business enterprises
  - Students can apply the accounting rules in determining the financial results.
  - Students will also be able to prepare the financial statements.
- Legal Methods
  - Evaluate and analyze various typical features of law
  - -Evaluate and analyze whether there is close, inherent necessary relationship between law and society in which it operates?
  - Understand how to find various sources of Law.
  - Learn How to Conduct research through library and Online resources and demonstrate skills in efficient use of library.
  - Explain different classifications under law in the broadest terms possible.
  - To use various legal material and to appreciate their relevance.
  - Understand application and relevance of various internal and external aids to interpretation.
  - Understand meaning of judicial precedent and its kinds and Find case laws relevant to facts presented to them and their application.
  - How to conduct legal research.
  - How to write assignments and essays, dissertation; dissertations and Method of citation

II Semester

1. Kannada / Kannada Kali
2. Principles and Practices of Management
3. Macro-Economics
4. Corporate Accounting
5. Law of Torts

- Kannada / Kannada Kali
- Kannada
  - The students will be able to understand the terms used in Courts (Kanoonu Kannada)
- Kannada Kali

After the Completion of the Course the Students will be able to :

- Communicate in Kannada Language.
- Read basic Kannada terms.

- Principals and Practices of Management

After the Completion of the Course the students will be able:

- Evolution of management and theories of management
- Plans that effect organization
- How employees form Recruitment to Demotion
- Structure of organization and hierarchy of Firm
- Leadership styles and how communication helps in organization

- Macro Economics
  - Understand the formulated Principles of Macro Economics.
  - Understand the working of Modern Economy.
  - Appreciate the role of the Government in the economic functioning of a nation.
- Corporate Accounting
  - Understand the concept of underwriting, need and marked and unmarked applications
  - Understand the different ways of issuing shares and debentures.
  - Understand the concept of minimum subscription and over subscription Calls in arrears and calls in advance Pro-rata allotment of shares Forfeiture and reissue of shares.
  - Understand the concept of shares and goodwill, its valuation and their importance
  - Learn to calculate time ratio and sales ratio Apportionment of different heads of expenses between pre and post incorporation period.
  - Understand the treatment of special items like Tax, dividends and so on Preparation of profit and loss account and Balance sheet in vertical format.

- Law of Torts

After the Completion of the Course the students will be able to understand

- The prerequisites for a wrongful act in order to be classified as a tort.
- Distinguish tort from breach of contract, crime etc.
- To illustrate the real world issues and find out if the defendant can justify the tortuous act on the grounds of defense available.
- To figure out the circumstances when the employer, principal, State are liable for the torts committed by employee, agent or public Officer.
- To apply the principles of negligence solving the real world problems. For example in cases of keeper of animals, manufacture of certain products etc.
- To appreciate the remedies and injunctions available in cases of nuisance.

III Semester

1. Marketing and Services of Management
2. Cost Accounting
3. Principles and Practices of Auditing
4. Business statistics
5. Constitutional Law –I

- Marketing and Services of Management

- The students learn the basic concepts of marketing, different approaches to the study of marketing, marketing functions, goals of marketing, and Recent Trends in Marketing.
- The students are introduced to the forces that define marketing's external environment.
- students understand the basic concept of service industry, characteristics of services, Marketing Mix of service Industry, Role of service sector in the economy,the concept of Service design and service blue print.

- Cost Accounting

After the Completion of the Course the students will be able to :

- State the meaning , Objectives and importance of cost accounting,
- Discuss the functions and roles of cost accounting ,
- List the various elements of cost and the way these are classified.
- State the meaning , Objectives and importance of cost accounting
- Discuss the functions and roles of cost accounting ,
- List the various elements of cost and the way these are classified.
- Methods of allocation , apportionment and absorption of overheads,
- Treatment of under absorption and over- absorption ,
- Various method to calculate overhead rate.

- Principles and Practices of Auditing

- Understand the functional classification and qualities of an Auditor
- Distinguish between auditing and investigation
- Understand different types of audit and relationship of auditing with other disciplines
- The student will be able to identify the different items which play a very important role in fraud check, Misstatement etc.,
- The student will be able to identify and recognize the Assets and Liabilities
- Students will able to understand how the auditors are appointed , how they are paid remuneration Qualifications of Auditor etc.,

- Business Statistics
  - To get a basic idea about the basics of statistics such as collection and classification of data.
  - The students will be able to express the data in graphs and charts.
  - To calculate mean, median and mode to analyze data
  - To help the students in future research by learning basics of co-relation and co-efficient of variation.
  - Through Index Numbers, the students will be able to measure the degree of economic changes over time.
- Constitutional Law – I

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to :

- Conceptualize the meaning of the terms, Constitution, Constitutional Law and Constitutionalism.
- Gain insights into the historical evolution of Constitution and it's provisions.
- Analyse the significance of Preamble and it's interpretative value in Constitution.
- Understand the importance of Fundamental Rights and it's role in development of individual's life.
- Gain insights into the concept of Equality, Freedom and Liberty.
- Analyse the role of Judiciary in enforcing Fundamental Rights.

IV Semester

1. Financial Management
2. International Business
3. Constitutional Law – II
4. Law of Crimes – I – IPC
5. Contract – I (Law of General Contract)

- Financial Management
- Understand the fundamentals of Financial Management
- Understand the Management of MNCs along with Mergers and Acquisitions.

- International Business

➢ Students will be able to understand the influence of environmental factors on the business and the advantage of being the members of SAARC- GATT/WTO.
➢ Students will understand the importance of MNC's.
➢ Students will understand the concept of LPG and its role in Developing economy.
➢ Students will understand the concept of LPG and its role in Developing economy.

- Constitutional Law –II

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

➢ Conceptualize the meaning of terms, Federal Government, Division of Powers and Separation of Powers.
➢ Analyse the scheme of distribution of Legislative and Executive Powers among the Centre and State as found in Constitution.
➢ Gain insights into the composition, procedure of appointment, removal of Judges and jurisdictional powers of the Supreme Courts and High Courts.
➢ Analyse the Constitutional provisions relating to President, Governors and Parliament.
➢ Conceptualize the meaning of term, Emergency, the types of Emergency and procedure for proclaiming the Emergency
➢ Gain insights into the concept and procedure for Amendments to Constitution.

- Criminal Law -I- Indian Penal Code

➢ Students will be able to understand the meaning of crime distinction between the crime and kinds of wrongs.
➢ Students will be able to understand General Exceptions, Abetment, Criminal Conspiracy, Offences against State, Offences against Public Tranquility, Offences relating to Stamps & Government and Punishments relating to all the offences.
➢ The various kinds of offences affecting human life, causing miscarriage and distinguish between hurt and Grievous Hurt.
➢ The distinction between the Kidnapping and Abduction, Meaning of Rape punishment for Rape and offences against property.
➢ To understand the section relating to Mischief, offences relating to marriage, Defamation and punishment for Defamation.

- Contract – I (Law of General Contract)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

➢ Analyse and evaluate the nature and meaning of contracts and apply the rules governing the requirement that the parties to a contract must reach an agreement comprised of offer and acceptance.
➢ Analyse the presumption and assess rules relevant to the requirement that the parties have an intention to create legal relations.

- Analyse and assess the rules which govern the requirement that consideration must be present in simple contracts
- Analyse and assess the nature and significance of the terms of a contract, the differences between representations and terms, the nature and significance of collateral contracts, the different types of contract and the nature and operation of exclusion clauses
- Determine and analyse the legal principles relating to the position of persons who lack contractual capacity to enter into contracts, comparing contrasts and the rights and liabilities of persons with whom they contract.
- Distinguish between and assess the meaning and effects of consensual problems of contracts with reference to mistake, misrepresentation, duress, undue influence.
- Determine the legal principles relating to privity of contract and assignment of contract.

V Semester

1. Labour Law-I
2. Jurisprudence
3. Family Law-I
4. Contract-II (Specific Contracts)
5. Administrative Law

- Labour Law –I

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to :

- Analyze the historical background of Trade Union
- Discuss the various Constitutional provisions related to Trade Union.
- Explain the procedures for the registration and cancellation of the Trade Union.
- Discuss the methods of Amalgamation and Recognition of the Trade Union
- Explain the Immunities of the Registered Trade Union.
- Explain the various authorities, their Powers and functions under the Industrial Dispute Act.
- Critically analyze the Voluntary Arbitration U/S 10.
- Explain the Compulsory Adjudication, Composition, qualification, jurisdiction and their powers.
- Explain the procedure for claiming and Computation of the Compensation under Employees Compensation Act, 1923-
- Discuss the Appointment of Commissioner and their Jurisdiction and Powers under Employees Compensation Act, 1923.
- Trace the various authorities under the Payment of wages Act, 1936
- Discuss the definitions of employed persons, factory, industrial and other establishment, wages, etc.

- Discuss the various provisions relating to health, safety and welfare of the workers under the Factories Act, 1948.

- Jurisprudence
  - Understand the concept of law in a philosophical and analytical manner.
  - Become reflective practitioners with the ability to move between doctrinal and philosophical argument essential for a critical and ethical practice of law.
  - Critically evaluate the sources of law and its application in the present day context.
  - Analyze various legal concepts like "rights", "duties", "personality" "ownership" and "possession".
  - Analyze the emergence and expansion of the concept of liability and critically evaluate the same in present day context.

- Family Law-I (Hindu Law)

  After the completion of this course, the students will be able to:
  - Identify and describe the various sources and schools of Hindu Law.
  - Demonstrate and understanding of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.
  - Examine and analyze the concept of marriage and relate it to the changing nature of marriage and matrimonial remedies.
  - Analyze the concept of Hindu Undivided Family.
  - Identify the provisions of Hindu Succession Act of 1956 and its amendments.
  - Demonstrate an understanding of the core concepts of Minority and guardianship, adoption laws and to analyze it from sociological perspective in the society.
  - To employ research skills such as collecting relevant data from reliable legal sources, retrieving judgments, articles and other material from online legal databases, evaluating judicial reasoning employed by courts.

- Contract – II
  - On completion of the course students will be able to:
  - Understand the concept of indemnity, guarantee, pledge and bailment
  - Analyse the nature of contract of agency and the rights and liabilities of agent
  - Examine the condition of a valid ratification & different modes of termination of agency.
  - Understand the sale of goods act scope and importance in the law of contract
  - Critically evaluate essentials elements of partnership & the different modes of dissolution.
  - Explain the condition and warranty in contract of a sale of goods.

- Administrative Law

  At the end of the course, a student will be able to understand:

  - The Nature Development of law relating to administration and effective means of administrative control. The Focus is on their role in protecting the rights of individuals against abuse of administration and adjudicatory powers of the administration and liability of administrative authorities.

- Analyze and predict how unresolved or ambiguous administrative law questions could be resolved by the courts through an analysis of case law and the judicial method.
- Identify, explain and apply the principles of administrative law covered in the course.

VI Semester

1. Labour Law-II
2. Company Law
3. Property Law
4. Family Law-II

- Labour Law –II

After the completion of the unit students will be able to

- Analyze the various Constitutional provisions related to labour welfare
- Explain the historical background and the main objectives of bonded labour abolition Act and discuss their problems and Punish for Bonded Labour
- Analyze the problems of Inter State Migration of Workers.
- Historical background of Inter State Migration of Workers Act,1979
- Trace the various authorities under the Minimum Wages Act, 1948
- Discuss the definitions of employed persons, factory, industrial and other establishment, wages, etc.
- The concept of Bonus- judicial interpretations and Constitutionality of the provision relating to Govt's power to exempt.
- Analyze the concept of bonus and Right to Share in profits
- Analyze the various provision relating to prohibition of child labour in certain establishments and processes-regulation of conditions of work- Penalties and Judicial Interpretation
- Discuss the laws relating to SEZ, its object, scope and implications.

- Company Law

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Analyse and evaluate the basics features of company laws and basic concepts unlined under the Companies Act, 2013.
- Scrutinize and apply what is meant by AOA, who are directors, their role and ethics to be maintained.

- Evaluate the importance of shares and their allotment. Understand how to manage the companies. Know how the company can be wound up.
- Analyse how the SEBI plays role in company's affairs, the powers and functions and related actions
- Determine how FEMA impacts the functioning of the company. Know the restrictions imposed by Competition Act, 2002.

Property Law

- Analyse and evaluate the meaning of Immovable Property.
- Scrutinize and apply the rules governing transfer between inter-vivos.
- Evaluate the principles of Lis Pendense and Transfer by an Ostensible owner.
- Analyse rules relevant for Sale, Mortgage, lease, Gift and Actionable Claim.
- Determine the rights of the parties in transaction relating to Sale, Mortgage, lease, Gift and Actionable Claim.

- Family Law -II- Mohammaden Law & Indian Succession Act

- Will comprehend codified and uncodified portions of Islamic civil law.
- Shall be able to apply legal provisions relating to marriage, Divorce, maintenance, succession
- Understand the relevancy of Family courts Act and Indian Succession Act.

VII Semester

1. Public International Law
2. Law of Taxation
3. Criminal Law-II (Cr. P.C)
4. Clinical Course –I(Professional Ethics and Professional Accounting System)

- Public International Law

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to understand

- Students are in position to understand basic concepts of international law Foundation for international trade & economics.
- International relations in the legal perspectives
- Understand the sources on which they have to rely in an international cases

- Law of Taxation

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Analyse and evaluate what is tax, why is it levied and its importance to the economy of the state.
- Scrutinize and apply what income is subjected to tax, how tax is assessed and how deductions take place.
- Evaluate the importance and advantages of GST over the previous indirect tax regime and how economic shifts occur.
- Analyse how the collection and distribution of revenue takes place. Also, they will be able to appreciate the importance of centre-state relations.
- Determine how customs work, how it is levied and regulation of SEZ Units.

- Criminal Law -II- Cr.P.C, JJ Act & Prohibition of Offenders Act

At the end of the course, a student will be able to understand:

- The system of criminal prosecution in India: who prosecutes; Process to Compel Appearance of Person, Process to Compel Production of Things, Right to speedy trial etc.
- The legal rules relating to arrest and bail under the Criminal Procedure Act, The rights of arrested persons and to apply such rules in a factual scenario.
- Describe principles applicable to the right to legal representation in Indian criminal trials and to apply such principles in a factual scenario.

- Clinical Course -I –Professional Ethics & Professional Accounting System
- Practice the moral values that ought to guide the Advocates profession.
- Discover of the set of justified moral principles of obligation, ideals that ought to be endorsed by the Advocates and apply them to concrete situations.
- If professional ethics not followed then consequences –hearing by the Bar Council Proceedings and punishments.
- Duties and responsibilities towards court, client, general public, society and nation
- Contempt of Court by the lawyers and consequences

VIII Semester

1. Law of Evidence
2. Optional-I: Human Rights Law and Practice / Insurance Law
3. Optional-II: Banking Law / Right to Information
4. Clinical Course-II: Alternative Dispute Resolution Systems

- Evidence
- Understand the importance of law of evidence in administration of justice and basic principles of evidence.
- Comprehend the relevancy value of various types of admissions and confessions.
- Analyse the kinds of evidence and its admissibility.

- Appreciate and deeply understand the role of law of evidence in a trial.
- Appreciate properly the evidence stage of trial mainly witness examination.
- Optional –I- Human Rights Law/Insurance Law.

Human Rights and Practice

- Trace the origin and jurisprudence of various human rights and get familiar with their conceptual analysis.
- To understand the value of human rights through the lens of different human rights organization. How are the problems related to human rights addressed on national and international level?
- To appreciate how law has intervened to solve the emerging problems related to human rights in different countries and what mechanisms and measures are adopted by those systems in order to ensure human rights protection and promotion.
- To analyze the legal remedies available to the Indian Citizens in case of violation of their human rights. What is the relationship between human rights and fundamental rights?
- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to violation of Human rights of the women, sensitive issues like harassment of women at work place, child labour, and pathos of the tribal community.

- Insurance

- Understand the concept of insurance, need for a regulation of insurance Business, Framework under the Insurance Act, 1938 and Insurance Regulatory and Development Act, 1999.
- Analyse insurance as a contract and important principles underlying insurance contract.
- Analyse the concept of life insurance and motor vehicle insurance and its application in the present day context.
- Analyse the emergence and expansion of the concept of marine insurance and critically evaluate the same in present day context.
- Evaluate other kinds of insurance in modern context.

Optional –II- Banking Law/ Right to Information

Banking Law

After Successful completion this unit the students will be able to; -

- possess knowledge and understanding of substantive and procedural law. Students will possess the ability to perform legal analysis and reasoning, legal research, problem solving, and written and oral communication in the legal context.
- Conversant with banking law's historic development and how it shaped today's bank regulatory regime.

- Critically assess how Banking Institutions origin and Evolve, types and functions of banks Emerging of RBI in India .
- Students should be able to answers to questions of Evolution of Banking institution in India,
- Functions of Commercial Banks, Management and Functions of Reserve Bank of India.
- Students will also appreciate the role of RBI and other institutions like State Bank of India- UTI, IDBI, RRBs'-Local banks
- Know the objectives the Loans and advances – general Principles of good lending, Modes of securing advances - Advances against different types of securities
- Know the objectives and scope of the Negotiable Instruments, 1881 Act and meaning, definition and kinds of Negotiable.
- Know the objectives and scope of the relationship between banker and customer.
- Know the Ancillary services and e- banking services. Student will be able to understand and amylase the modern banking services e- banking and ancillary services of banker

- Right to Information
  - Understand the historical evolution as well as the constitutional background of the right to information.
  - The students will also get an overview regarding the objectives and operation of RTI Act, 2005 and the challenges in its application.
  - Comprehend the definition of public authorities and their obligations under the RTI Act. Moreover, the students will be able to analyze legislative provisions in the Act and concepts related to the same which will give them clarity about the framework of the Act.
  - Appraise in details the establishment of Central Information Commission as well as State Information Commissions. At the same time they will be aware of the power and functions of the commissions.
  - Introduced with the legislations which make similar provisions or adverse provisions regarding freedom of information.
  - Equipped with a broader point of view regarding right to information by linking RTI to different human rights legislations in a comparative perspective.
  - get an overview of the Prevention of Corruption Act and at the same time they will get an exposure to the various institutions established to combat corruption and their limitations
- Clinical Course –II – Alternative Dispute Resolution
  - Explain ADRS in ancient, medieval and modern period. Analyze the different methods of dispute resolution; Inquisitorial method, Adversial method, other methods-both formal and informal like Arbitration, conciliation, Negotiation, Mediation, etc. Explain the Advantages and disadvantages of ADR method.
  - Define and discuss what is arbitration, meaning, general principles of arbitration, kinds of arbitration, arbitral award
  - Define and explain what conciliation is? Meaning, different kinds of conciliation
  - Discuss negotiation explain various approaches and phases to negotiation

- Explain the Essential characteristics of mediation process

IX Semester

1. Civil Procedure Code and Limitation Act
2. Optional-III: Intellectual Property Rights-I / Penology &Victimlogy
3. Optional-IV: Interpretation of Statutes and Principles of Legislation /Competition Law
4. Clinical Course-III: Drafting, Pleading and Conveyance

- Civil Procedure Code & Limitation Act

- To acquaint students with the jurisdiction of civil courts.
- Introduce students to the rules of pleadings in civil matters.
- Equip students with the knowledge of different stages in a civil proceeding and the procedure at each of these stages.
- Introduce students to the execution proceedings.
- Acquaints students with remedies available to a party aggrieved by the order of a court.
- Make the students aware of some special suits.
- Introduces students to the miscellaneous matters such as inter-pleader suits, caveats, inherent powers of the courts, etc.
- Equip students with the knowledge of the important provisions of Limitation Act
- Differentiate substantive and procedural law and explain the inter-relationship between the two areas
- Define personal and subject matter jurisdiction involved in civil litigation matters
- Define the area of remedies in civil litigation matters
- Draft pleadings and discovery document in proper court format
- Explain the role of a paralegal in civil litigation matters

- Optional -III- Intellectual Property Rights/ Penology & Victimology

Intellectual Property Rights –I

- Trace the origin and evolution of the emerging field of intellectual property rights and to get familiar with their conceptual analysis and its significance in today's world.
- To understand the value of trademark and how one gets a registered trademark. What mechanism is to be followed in case of its infringement?
- To appreciate how law can solve the emerging problems in the cyber space every now and then. Policies of data protection, cyber frauds etc.
- To identify the different geographical indications in India and abroad, to establish the difference between trademark and geographical indications.
- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to international and domestic IPRs. How to balance both the laws for a proper functioning of the IPR regime

• Penology & Victimology

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to understand :

- The Origin, Development , Definition and Scope of Penology Nature and Scope of Punishment General Principles or rules of Punishment Purpose of Punishment, Kinds of Discarded Punishments, Right of the State to Punish.
- Existing Modes or Forms or Types or kinds of Punishment.
- Processes and Policies of sentencing Concept of capital punishment (death sentence).
- Victim's Justice in India
- Rights of victims
- Legislative and Administrative Measures

• Optional –IV- Interpretation of Statutes & Principles of Legislation/Competition Law

• Interpretation of Statutes

- Explain the primary canons and subsidiary rules of Statutory Interpretation.
- Evaluate and analyze the various kinds of Internal and External Aids for the Interpretation.
- Discuss, explain and evaluate the Operation, Commencement, Repeal and Expiry of the Statute- and its impact on other statues as well as rights and liabilities of the parties that have been incurred or acquired as the case may be
- Analyze the Principles of Interpretation with special reference to the nature of the statute like fiscal, penal and remedial statute.
- Explain the Life history of the Bentham, his works, his theories and the principle of utility.

• Competition Law

- Understand the requirements of a free market economy and the role of Competition Laws to ensure there is fair competition.
- Understand the development of Competition Law in other countries and to take a comparative approach to the study of Competition Law.

- Understand the origins of Antitrust laws in India and an overview of all the anti competitive practices prohibited under the Act.
- Understand how the CCI protects the consumers interest at the macro level and its composition and functions

- Clinical Course -III- Drafting, Pleading & Conveyancing

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to draft pleadings, Conveyances and other relevant documents.

X Semester

1. Environmental Law
2. Optional –V – Intellectual Property –II / White Collar Crimes
3. Optional –VI- Land Law / Law relating to International Trade Economics
4. Clinical Course –IV – Moot Court Exercise and Internship

- Environmental Law

After successful completion of this unit students will be able to

- Understand the terms such as environment, ecology , pollution, pollutant and historical background of environmental jurisprudence - both pre colonial and post colonial; that paved way for environmental conservation.
- Analyzing several case laws; the students will be able to appreciate the Judicial Activism in Environmental Protection and how environmental jurisprudence evolved incorporating various environmental doctrines in municipal laws.
- Appreciate the Judicial Activism in Environmental Protection and how has environmental jurisprudence evolved incorporating various environmental doctrines in municipal laws.
- Analyze the impact of these international conventions and its contribution in shaping Indian Environmental Jurisprudence.
- Acquainted with the general powers of the Central Government to prevent, control and abate the environment under the Act.

- Optional -V- Intellectual Property Rights/ White Collar Crimes

- Intellectual Property Rights –II

- Trace the origin of various copyright laws and get familiar with their conceptual analysis.
- To understand the value of biodiversity, biological resources and importance of traditional knowledge. What mechanism is to be followed in case of conflict between traditional knowledge and technological developments?
- To appreciate how law can solve the emerging problems of the farmers by providing farmer's rights. The Stake holders involved in the process and role played by the tribunals to overcome the hurdles.
- Students would be able to understand the legislations related to designs in India and abroad, and the implications on infringement of designs law.
- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to international and domestic IPRs. And how the conflict arising between them is resolved.

- White Collar Crimes

- To learn the Indian approaches to socio-economic offences- forms of privileged class deviance.
- Sstudents will be able to understand the concept of White Collar Crimes and also Prevention of Corruption laws.
- Students will be able to read and analyse judgments and about the roles and functions of Police and politicians' deviance; N.N.Vorha Committee Report; Lokpal and Lokayukta institutions.
- Students will be able to understand the meaning of legal professionalism and also in medical profession.
- Students will be able to understand the laws relating to offences against sexual harassment and scheduled tribes.

- Optional -VI- Land Law/Law Relating to International Trade Economics
- Land Law

After successful completion of this unit students will be able

- To learn about the concept of land, its use and benefits, rights and obligations of citizen and authority by govt. over the land and land administration.
- To learn about the powers, functions and limitations of revenue authorities and its impact on the land holders.
- To understand the importance of special land law and vitality of the disadvantaged communities.
- To learn about the trends in the real estate services and its importance.

- International Trade Economics

- Study on origin, development and functioning of WTO as trade regulatory body.
- Will understand the development of trade in international level.
- Focus on concepts like FDI norms, TBT, SPS, Dumping and related areas

- Shall appreciate the process and conditions of technology transfer, foreign
- Collaborations, NRI investments, etc. Shall be in a position to know the policies and rules regulating international trade.

- Clinical Course -IV- Moot Court & Internship

This course of Moot Court exercise is designed to hone advocacy skills in the students. Moot Courts are simulation exercises geared up to endow students with facility in preparation of written submissions and planning, organising and marshalling arguments in the given time so as to convince the presiding officer.

PRINCIPAL
BMS COLLEGE OF LAW
Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi,
Bengaluru - 560 019.

B.M.S COLLEGE OF LAW

Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi, Benguru -19

COURSE OUTCOMES – B.A., LL.B

I Semester

1. General English
2. Major - I: Political Science – Theory & Thought
3. Minor - I - I: Invitation to Sociology
4. Minor – II – I: Principles of Economics
5. Legal Methods

General English

- To enhance the advocacy skills of students.
- Make them understand the relevance of building a strong social structure as responsibility of lawyers.
- Setting a path for legal reasoning, critical thinking and analysis.
- Understand the features of English language, importance of vocabulary, contextual meaning of words and their usage.
- Helps in logical thought, legal reasoning and facilitates in understanding common problems.
- Introducing them to the intricacies of the legal reasoning, critical thinking and analysis.

Major –I -I Political Science – I (Theory & Thought)

- The Students will get firsthand knowledge about the evolution of the discipline Political Science and State. It will also help them in the method of analogy of various other Social sciences and Jurisprudence.
- They will be apprehended with both Western and Indian Political Philosophy in ancient, medieval and contemporary set up.
- They will discern the importance, pros and cons of Democracy, communism, rights, duties, secularism and their implementation through governmental agencies.
- The Students will be familiarized with the discipline Political Science, its scope and importance in the modern view.
- The students will get a clear picture of the functions, elements and evolution of the State. It will help in the analysis of why Political science begins and ends with the State as it is the Sovereign authority
- They will understand how religion played an important role in politics and eventually led to the separation of Church and the State.
- They will get a in depth account of Ancient Indian and attributes of Islamic Political Thought and Law.

PRINCIPAL
BMS COLLEGE OF LAW
Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi,
Bengaluru - 560 019.

- The Students will be able to trace the various philosophies like Socialism and Marxism and their exponents. They will be acquainted with the idea of Gandhian model and his relevance in today's world.
- Students will be familiar with their fundamental rights and duties enshrined in the constitution. As responsible citizens, they will contribute and be accountable towards building a Welfare State.

Minor –I –I Sociology – (Invitation to Sociology)

- This course provides an outline exposure to the students about fundamental concepts of Sociology.
- This course also aims at helping students to understand social institutions a regulative mechanism of society.
- It makes them to acquire sufficient knowledge about social change and development.
- Students will be able to identify areas of social concern.
- The course will assist students to critically analyse their social surroundings which will produce efficacy in becoming socially sensitive beings.

- Minor –II-I Economics –I (Principles of Economics)

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Analyse and evaluate the meaning of Economics and the principles there in.
- Understand what is economics and its importance in practical life.
- Evaluate the principles of Economy and the different types of Economic systems which are present in the real world.
- Appreciate developments pertaining to cardinal and ordinal approaches.
- Not only differentiate between various types of markets, but they shall also be able to understand which markets are really found in the real world.

- Legal Methods

- -Evaluate and analyze various typical features of law
- -Evaluate and analyze whether there is close, inherent necessary relationship between law and society in which it operates?
- Understand how to find various sources of Law.
- Learn How to Conduct research through library and Online resources and demonstrate skills in efficient use of library.
- Explain different classifications under law in the broadest terms possible.
- To use various legal material and to appreciate their relevance.
- Understand application and relevance of various internal and external aids to interpretation.
- Understand meaning of judicial precedent and its kinds and Find case laws relevant to facts presented to them and their application.
- How to conduct legal research.
- How to write assignments and essays, dissertation; dissertations and Method of citation

II Semester

1. Kannada / Kannada Kali
2. Major – 2: Pol. Sc – Organization and Institutions
3. Minor – I- II: Indian Society; Continuity and Change
4. Minor – II – II: Money, Banking and International trade
5. Law of Torts

- Kannada / Kannada Kali
- Kannada
  - The students will be able to understand the terms used in Courts (Kanoonu Kannada)
- Kannada Kali

After the Completion of the Course the Students will be able to :

- Communicate in Kannada Language.
- Read Kannada .

- Major-I- II Political Science (Organization & Institution)

After the completion of the unit students will be able to:-

- Have a conceptual understanding on the meaning of constitutionits need and importance.
- Discuss, explain and evaluate different types of constitutions and their merits and demerits.
- Understand about different organs of government and their functions (legislative, executive)
- Evaluate and analyze roles of civil services, judiciary in India
- Understand the meaning of citizenship and its qualification

- Minor-I –II (Indian Society, Continuity & Change)

- Students will be able to build a comprehensive, integrated and objective profile of Indian society.
- Students will be enabled to demonstrate conventional, dominant and prevailing perspectives of Indian society.
- The course gives an explicit analysis of various schools of thought that will help students to develop the ability of critical thinking and reason every social phenomenon.
- Students will be able to review and analyse all the social changes associated with various social institutions and Organizations.
- It will be efficient enough to assist students to identify various legislations and connect them to the theoretical aspect of Sociology.

- Minor- II- II Economics (Money , Banking & International Trade)

- To get a clear idea of how the economy works
- To realize the importance of the banking sector
- To understand how the banking sector works practically
- Learning about the importance of various international institutions like WTO
- To analyze and interpret how the foreign exchange market works.

- Law of Torts
- After the Completion of the Course the students will be able to understand
  - The prerequisites for a wrongful act in order to be classified as a tort.
  - Distinguish tort from breach of contract, crime etc.
  - To illustrate the real world issues and find out if the defendant can justify the tortuous act on the grounds of defense available.
  - To figure out the circumstances when the employer, principal, State are liable for the torts committed by employee, agent or public Officer.
  - To apply the principles of negligence solving the real world problems. For example in cases of keeper of animals, manufacture of certain products etc.
  - To appreciate the remedies and injunctions available in cases of nuisance.
  - To avail the remedies available if tort committed against a person
  - To know the remedies available in case of tort against property.
  - To be aware of the unliquidated damages on can claim in cases of defamation.

III Semester

1. Major – 3: State & Political Obligation
2. Major – 4: Major World Government
3. Minor – I – III: Recent Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology
4. Minor – II – III: Economic, Theory and Public Finance
5. Constitutional Law – I

- Major-III Political Science (State & Political Obligation)
  - The Students will get firsthand knowledge of the tenets of Political Obligation, forms of governments and moral code of ethics.
  - The students will be able to trace why Politics is also the science of Power, Authority and Responsibility and the evolution of Political Obligation through judicial agencies.
  - They will be acquainted with theories like Law, Justice, Liberty, Equality, Obedience, power, authority that will instill human values as individuals.
  - The Students will be familiarized about the various attributes, kinds, theories of Political Obligation.
  - The students will get a clear picture of political obligation under various forms of
  - Governments in both ancient and medieval period.
  - They will also be able to understand the moral requirements to obey national laws and their duty towards the State authority.
- Major –IV Political Science (Major World Governments)

  After the Completion of the Course the students will be able;
  - To understand the administrative, Legislative, Judicial, Party system of leading Constitutions viz. USA , UK, France , Switzerland and India.
  - To analyze different scenario of evolution of the Constitution.

- To study in what situations the governments would like and behave.
- To understand the evolution of constitution of India from pre independence to post
- Independence period and also about the organs of the government viz. executives, legislature and judiciary both at centre and state and their powers and functions.
- To familiarize students with the Constitutional arrangements and processes in India.
- To focus on some of the fundamental institutional arrangements that guides the state policy and protects people's rights. Emphasis will be both on the origin and development of such mechanisms in India.
- To gain knowledge of the nature and functions of government.
- Study Political activity and its political behaviour from Comparative government.
- To know about the merits and demerits of governments of different countries.

- Minor –I –III (Recent Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology)

- Students will be able to make constructive relevance of theoretical perspective and pragmatic sense of reality.
- Origin and growth of a school of thought will help students to understand abstract and philosophical levels of sociological enquiry.
- An explicit analysis of classical schools of thought and modern schools of thought will assist students to critically analyse growth and conventional changes in society.
- Ideologies such as Feminism and Post Modern theories will assist students to develop the ability of critical thinking and they will be able to apply their knowledge in reality.

- Constitutional Law- I

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to :

- Conceptualize the meaning of the terms, Constitution, Constitutional Law and Constitutionalism.
- Gain insights into the historical evolution of Constitution and it's provisions.
- Analyse the significance of Preamble and it's interpretative value in Constitution.
- Understand the importance of Fundamental Rights and it's role in development of individual's life.
- Gain insights into the concept of Equality, Freedom and Liberty.
- Analyse the role of Judiciary in enforcing Fundamental Rights.

IV Semester

1. Major – 5: Political Science – Public Administration
2. Major – 6: International Relations
3. Constitutional Law – II
4. Law of Crimes – I – IPC
5. Contract – I (Law of General Contract)

- Major –V Political Science (Public Administration)

- Students will get a better understanding of Public Administration as a discipline in relation to Pub. Adm. as an activity.
- Students will have a clear picture about the two most important agencies in any Department.
- Students will have a better understanding of the recruitment method adopted in India which may provide students a platform to keep the option open of joining the institution of Bureaucracy in India.
- Details about the multidisciplinary of the subject matter of Public Administration. They will learn about the tasks that need to perform like planning, directing, budgeting so on and so forth.
- Understand the essentials of being a leader and will help them to imbibe some of the qualities desired

- Major- VI Political Science (International Relations)
  - Explain and evaluate the concept of Nationality, its elements and limitations
  - Analyze the brief Concept of National Power and elements of Nationality.
  - Discuss and explain the very brief history of Diplomacy
  - Explain the brief history of Disarmament
  - Discuss the need and importance of peaceful settlement of disputes.
- Constitutional Law –II

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

6

- Conceptualize the meaning of terms, Federal Government, Division of Powers and Separation of Powers.
- Analyse the scheme of distribution of Legislative and Executive Powers among the Centre and State as found in Constitution.
- Gain insights into the composition, procedure of appointment, removal of Judges and jurisdictional powers of the Supreme Courts and High Courts.
- Analyse the Constitutional provisions relating to President, Governors and Parliament.
- Conceptualise the meaning of term, Emergency, the types of Emergency and procedure for proclaiming the Emergency
- Gain insights into the concept and procedure for Amendments to Constitution.

- Criminal Law -I- Indian Penal Code
  - Students will be able to understand the meaning of crime distinction between the crime and kinds of wrongs.
  - Students will be able to understand General Exceptions, Abetment, Criminal Conspiracy, Offences against State, Offences against Public Tranquility, Offences relating to Stamps & Government and Punishments relating to all the offences.
  - The various kinds of offences affecting human life, causing miscarriage and distinguish between hurt and Grievous Hurt.
  - The distinction between the Kidnapping and Abduction, Meaning of Rape punishment for Rape and offences against property.
  - To understand the section relating to Mischief, offences relating to marriage, Defamation and punishment for Defamation.
- Contract – I (Law of General Contract)

  Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
  - Analyse and evaluate the nature and meaning of contracts and apply the rules governing the requirement that the parties to a contract must reach an agreement comprised of offer and acceptance.
  - Analyse the presumption and assess rules relevant to the requirement that the parties have an intention to create legal relations.
  - Analyse and assess the rules which govern the requirement that consideration must be present in simple contracts
  - Analyse and assess the nature and significance of the terms of a contract, the differences between representations and terms, the nature and significance of collateral contracts, the different types of contract and the nature and operation of exclusion clauses
  - Determine and analyse the legal principles relating to the position of persons who lack contractual capacity to enter into contracts, comparing contrasts and the rights and liabilities of persons with whom they contract.
  - Distinguish between and assess the meaning and effects of consensual problems of contracts with reference to mistake, misrepresentation, duress, undue influence.
  - Determine the legal principles relating to privity of contract and assignment of contract.

V Semester

1. Labour Law-I
2. Jurisprudence
3. Family Law-I
4. Contract-II (Specific Contracts)
5. Administrative Law

- Labour Law –I

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to :

- Analyze the historical background of Trade Union
- Discuss the various Constitutional provisions related to Trade Union.
- Explain the procedures for the registration and cancellation of the Trade Union.
- Discuss the methods of Amalgamation and Recognition of the Trade Union
- Explain the Immunities of the Registered Trade Union.
- Explain the various authorities, their Powers and functions under the Industrial Dispute Act.
- Critically analyze the Voluntary Arbitration U/S 10.
- Explain the Compulsory Adjudication, Composition, qualification, jurisdiction and their powers.
- Explain the procedure for claiming and Computation of the Compensation under Employees Compensation Act, 1923-
- Discuss the Appointment of Commissioner and their Jurisdiction and Powers under Employees Compensation Act, 1923.
- Trace the various authorities under the Payment of wages Act, 1936
- Discuss the definitions of employed persons, factory, industrial and other establishment, wages, etc.
- Discuss the various provisions relating to health, safety and welfare of the workers under the Factories Act, 1948.

- Jurisprudence
  - Understand the concept of law in a philosophical and analytical manner.
  - Become reflective practitioners with the ability to move between doctrinal and philosophical argument essential for a critical and ethical practice of law.
  - Critically evaluate the sources of law and its application in the present day context.
  - Analyze various legal concepts like "rights", "duties", "personality" "ownership" and "possession".
  - Analyze the emergence and expansion of the concept of liability and critically evaluate the same in present day context.
- Family Law-I (Hindu Law)

After the completion of this course, the students will be able to:

- Identify and describe the various sources and schools of Hindu Law.
- Demonstrate and understanding of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.
- Examine and analyze the concept of marriage and relate it to the changing nature of marriage and matrimonial remedies.

- Analyze the concept of Hindu Undivided Family.
- Identify the provisions of Hindu Succession Act of 1956 and its amendments.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the core concepts of Minority and guardianship, adoption laws and to analyze it from sociological perspective in the society.
- To employ research skills such as collecting relevant data from reliable legal sources, retrieving judgments, articles and other material from online legal databases, evaluating judicial reasoning employed by courts.

- Contract – II
  - On completion of the course students will be able to:
  - Understand the concept of indemnity, guarantee, pledge and bailment
  - Analyse the nature of contract of agency and the rights and liabilities of agent
  - Examine the condition of a valid ratification & different modes of termination of agency.
  - Understand the sale of goods act scope and importance in the law of contract
  - Critically evaluate essentials elements of partnership & the different modes of dissolution.
  - Explain the condition and warranty in contract of a sale of goods.

- Administrative Law

  At the end of the course, a student will be able to understand:

  - The Nature Development of law relating to administration and effective means of administrative control. The Focus is on their role in protecting the rights of individuals against abuse of administration and adjudicatory powers of the administration and liability of administrative authorities.
  - Analyze and predict how unresolved or ambiguous administrative law questions could be resolved by the courts through an analysis of case law and the judicial method.
  - Identify, explain and apply the principles of administrative law covered in the course.

VI Semester

1. Labour Law-II
2. Company Law
3. Property Law
4. Family Law-II

- Labour Law –II

After the completion of the unit students will be able to
- Analyze the various Constitutional provisions related to labour welfare
- Explain the historical background and the main objectives of bonded labour abolition Act and discuss their problems and Punish for Bonded Labour
- Analyze the problems of Inter State Migration of Workers.
- Historical background of Inter State Migration of Workers Act,1979
- Trace the various authorities under the Minimum Wages Act, 1948

- Discuss the definitions of employed persons, factory, industrial and other establishment, wages, etc.
- The concept of Bonus- judicial interpretations and Constitutionality of the provision relating to Govt.s power to exempt.
- Analyze the concept of bonus and Right to Share in profits
- Analyze the various provision relating to prohibition of child labour in certain establishments and processes-regulation of conditions of work- Penalties and Judicial Interpretation
- Discuss the laws relating to SEZ, its object, scope and implications.

- Company Law

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Analyse and evaluate the basics features of company laws and basic concepts unlined under the Companies Act, 2013.
- Scrutinize and apply what is meant by AOA, who are directors, their role and ethics to be maintained.
- Evaluate the importance of shares and their allotment. Understand how to manage the companies. Know how the company can be wound up.
- Analyse how the SEBI plays role in company's affairs, the powers and functions and related actions
- Determine how FEMA impacts the functioning of the company. Know the restrictions imposed by Competition Act, 2002.

Property Law

- Analyse and evaluate the meaning of Immovable Property.
- Scrutinize and apply the rules governing transfer between inter-vivos.
- Evaluate the principles of Lis Pendense and Transfer by an Ostensible owner.
- Analyse rules relevant for Sale, Mortgage, lease, Gift and Actionable Claim.
- Determine the rights of the parties in transaction relating to Sale, Mortgage, lease, Gift and Actionable Claim.

- Family Law -II- Mohammaden Law & Indian Succession Act
  - Will comprehend codified and uncodified portions of Islamic civil law.
  - Shall be able to apply legal provisions relating to marriage, Divorce, maintenance, succession
  - Understand the relevancy of Family courts Act and Indian Succession Act.

VII Semester

1. Public International Law
2. Law of Taxation
3. Criminal Law-II (Cr. P.C)

4. Clinical Course –I(Professional Ethics and Professional Accounting System)

- Public International Law

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to understand

- Students are in position to understand basic concepts of international law Foundation for international trade & economics.
- International relations in the legal perspectives
- Understand the sources on which they have to rely in an international cases

- Law of Taxation

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Analyse and evaluate what is tax, why is it levied and its importance to the economy of the state.
- Scrutinize and apply what income is subjected to tax, how tax is assessed and how deductions take place.
- Evaluate the importance and advantages of GST over the previous indirect tax regime and how economic shifts occur.
- Analyse how the collection and distribution of revenue takes place. Also, they will be able to appreciate the importance of centre-state relations.
- Determine how customs work, how it is levied and regulation of SEZ Units.

- Criminal Law -II- Cr.P.C, JJ Act & Prohibition of Offenders Act

At the end of the course, a student will be able to understand:

- The system of criminal prosecution in India: who prosecutes; Process to Compel Appearance of Person, Process to Compel Production of Things, Right to speedy trial etc.
- The legal rules relating to arrest and bail under the Criminal Procedure Act, The rights of arrested persons and to apply such rules in a factual scenario.
- Describe principles applicable to the right to legal representation in Indian criminal trials and to apply such principles in a factual scenario.

- Clinical Course -I –Professional Ethics & Professional Accounting System

- Practice the moral values that ought to guide the Advocates profession.
- Discover of the set of justified moral principles of obligation, ideals that ought to be endorsed by the Advocates and apply them to concrete situations.
- If professional ethics not followed then consequences –hearing by the Bar Council Proceedings and punishments.
- Duties and responsibilities towards court, client, general public, society and nation
- Contempt of Court by the lawyers and consequences

VIII Semester

1. Law of Evidence
2. Optional-I: Human Rights Law and Practice / Insurance Law
3. Optional-II: Banking Law / Right to Information
4. Clinical Course-II: Alternative Dispute Resolution Systems

- Evidence
- Understand the importance of law of evidence in administration of justice and basic principles of evidence.
- Comprehend the relevancy value of various types of admissions and confessions.
- Analyse the kinds of evidence and its admissibility.
- Appreciate and deeply understand the role of law of evidence in a trial.
- Appreciate properly the evidence stage of trial mainly witness examination.
- Optional –I- Human Rights Law/Insurance Law.

Human Rights and Practice

- Trace the origin and jurisprudence of various human rights and get familiar with their conceptual analysis.
- To understand the value of human rights through the lens of different human rights organization. How are the problems related to human rights addressed on national and international level?
- To appreciate how law has intervened to solve the emerging problems related to human rights in different countries and what mechanisms and measures are adopted by those systems in order to ensure human rights protection and promotion.
- To analyze the legal remedies available to the Indian Citizens in case of violation of their human rights. What is the relationship between human rights and fundamental rights?
- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to violation of Human rights of the women, sensitive issues like harassment of women at work place, child labour, and pathos of the tribal community.

Insurance

- Understand the concept of insurance, need for a regulation of insurance Business, Framework under the Insurance Act, 1938 and Insurance Regulatory and Development Act, 1999.
- Analyse insurance as a contract and important principles underlying insurance contract.
- Analyse the concept of life insurance and motor vehicle insurance and its application in the present day context.
- Analyse the emergence and expansion of the concept of marine insurance and critically evaluate the same in present day context.
- Evaluate other kinds of insurance in modern context.

Optional –II- Banking Law/ Right to Information

Banking Law

After Successful completion this unit the students will be able to; -

- possess knowledge and understanding of substantive and procedural law. Students will possess the ability to perform legal analysis and reasoning, legal research, problem solving, and written and oral communication in the legal context.
- Conversant with banking law's historic development and how it shaped today's bank regulatory regime.
- Critically assess how Banking Institutions origin and Evolve, types and functions of banks Emerging of RBI in India .
- Students should be able to answers to questions of Evolution of Banking institution in India,
- Functions of Commercial Banks, Management and Functions of Reserve Bank of India.
- Students will also appreciate the role of RBI and other institutions like State Bank of India- UTI, IDBI, RRBs'-Local banks
- Know the objectives the Loans and advances – general Principles of good lending, Modes of securing advances - Advances against different types of securities
- Know the objectives and scope of the Negotiable Instruments, 1881 Act and meaning, definition and kinds of Negotiable.
- Know the objectives and scope of the relationship between banker and customer.
- Know the Ancillary services and e- banking services. Student will be able to understand and amylase the modern banking services e- banking and ancillary services of banker

Right to Information

- Understand the historical evolution as well as the constitutional background of the right to information.
- The students will also get an overview regarding the objectives and operation of RTI Act, 2005 and the challenges in its application.
- Comprehend the definition of public authorities and their obligations under the RTI Act. Moreover, the students will be able to analyze legislative provisions in the Act and concepts related to the same which will give them clarity about the framework of the Act.
- Appraise in details the establishment of Central Information Commission as well as State Information Commissions. At the same time they will be aware of the power and functions of the commissions.
- Introduced with the legislations which make similar provisions or adverse provisions regarding freedom of information.
- Equipped with a broader point of view regarding right to information by linking RTI to different human rights legislations in a comparative perspective.
- get an overview of the Prevention of Corruption Act and at the same time they will get an exposure to the various institutions established to combat corruption and their limitations

Clinical Course –II – Alternative Dispute Resolution

- Explain ADRS in ancient, medieval and modern period. Analyze the different methods of dispute resolution; Inquisitorial method, Adversial method, other methods-both formal and informal like Arbitration, conciliation, Negotiation, Mediation, etc. Explain the Advantages and disadvantages of ADR method.
- Define and discuss what is arbitration, meaning, general principles of arbitration, kinds of arbitration, arbitral award
- Define and explain what conciliation is? Meaning, different kinds of conciliation
- Discuss negotiation explain various approaches and phases to negotiation
- Explain the Essential characteristics of mediation process

IX Semester

1. Civil Procedure Code and Limitation Act
2. Optional-III: Intellectual Property Rights-I / Penology &Victimlogy
3. Optional-IV: Interpretation of Statutes and Principles of Legislation /Competition Law
4. Clinical Course-III: Drafting, Pleading and Conveyance

- Civil Procedure Code & Limitation Act

- To acquaint students with the jurisdiction of civil courts.
- Introduce students to the rules of pleadings in civil matters.
- Equip students with the knowledge of different stages in a civil proceeding and the procedure at each of these stages.
- Introduce students to the execution proceedings.
- Acquaints students with remedies available to a party aggrieved by the order of a court.
- Make the students aware of some special suits.
- Introduces students to the miscellaneous matters such as inter-pleader suits, caveats, inherent powers of the courts, etc.
- Equip students with the knowledge of the important provisions of Limitation Act
- Differentiate substantive and procedural law and explain the inter-relationship between the two areas
- Define personal and subject matter jurisdiction involved in civil litigation matters
- Define the area of remedies in civil litigation matters
- Draft pleadings and discovery document in proper court format
- Explain the role of a paralegal in civil litigation matters

- Optional -III- Intellectual Property Rights/ Penology & Victimology

Intellectual Property Rights –I

- Trace the origin and evolution of the emerging field of intellectual property rights and to get familiar with their conceptual analysis and its significance in today's world.
- To understand the value of trademark and how one gets a registered trademark. What mechanism is to be followed in case of its infringement?

- To appreciate how law can solve the emerging problems in the cyber space every now and then. Policies of data protection, cyber frauds etc.
- To identify the different geographical indications in India and abroad, to establish the difference between trademark and geographical indications.
- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to international and domestic IPRs. How to balance both the laws for a proper functioning of the IPR regime

- Penology & Victimology

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to understand :

- The Origin, Development , Definition and Scope of Penology Nature and Scope of Punishment General Principles or rules of Punishment Purpose of Punishment, Kinds of Discarded Punishments, Right of the State to Punish.
- Existing Modes or Forms or Types or kinds of Punishment.
- Processes and Policies of sentencing Concept of capital punishment (death sentence).
- Victim's Justice in India
- Rights of victims
- Legislative and Administrative Measures

- Optional –IV- Interpretation of Statutes & Principles of Legislation/Competition Law

Interpretation of Statutes

- Explain the primary canons and subsidiary rules of Statutory Interpretation.
- Evaluate and analyze the various kinds of Internal and External Aids for the Interpretation.
- Discuss, explain and evaluate the Operation, Commencement, Repeal and Expiry of the Statute- and its impact on other statues as well as rights and liabilities of the parties that have been incurred or acquired as the case may be
- Analyze the Principles of Interpretation with special reference to the nature of the statute like fiscal, penal and remedial statute.
- Explain the Life history of the Bentham, his works, his theories and the principle of utility.

- Competition Law
  - Students will get insight into the Competition At 2020.
  - It enables the students to understand the role of Competitive Market in the Economic Development, Anti-Completive Practices and its impact on socio legal scenario of the Country.

- Clinical Course -III- Drafting, Pleading & Convevancing

After the completion of the Course the students will be able to draft pleadings, Conveyances and other relevant documents.

X Semester

1. Environmental Law
2. Optional –V – Intellectual Property –II / White Collar Crimes
3. Optional –VI- Land Law / Law relating to International Trade Economics
4. Clinical Course –IV – Moot Court Exercise and Internship

- Environmental Law

After successful completion of this unit students will be able to

- Understand the terms such as environment, ecology , pollution, pollutant and historical background of environmental jurisprudence - both pre colonial and post colonial; that paved way for environmental conservation.
- Analyzing several case laws; the students will be able to appreciate the Judicial Activism in Environmental Protection and how environmental jurisprudence evolved incorporating various environmental doctrines in municipal laws.
- Appreciate the Judicial Activism in Environmental Protection and how has environmental jurisprudence evolved incorporating various environmental doctrines in municipal laws.
- Analyze the impact of these international conventions and its contribution in shaping Indian Environmental Jurisprudence.
- Acquainted with the general powers of the Central Government to prevent, control and abate the environment under the Act.

- Optional -V- Intellectual Property Rights/ White Collar Crimes

Intellectual Property Rights –II

- Trace the origin of various copyright laws and get familiar with their conceptual analysis.

16

- To understand the value of biodiversity, biological resources and importance of traditional knowledge. What mechanism is to be followed in case of conflict between traditional knowledge and technological developments?
- To appreciate how law can solve the emerging problems of the farmers by providing farmer's rights. The Stake holders involved in the process and role played by the tribunals to overcome the hurdles.
- Students would be able to understand the legislations related to designs in India and abroad, and the implications on infringement of designs law.
- This will lead to enhanced knowledge of the students on matters related to international and domestic IPRs. And how the conflict arising between them is resolved.

White Collar Crimes

- To learn the Indian approaches to socio-economic offences- forms of privileged class deviance.
- Sstudents will be able to understand the concept of White Collar Crimes and also Prevention of Corruption laws.
- Students will be able to read and analyse judgments and about the roles and functions of Police and politicians' deviance; N.N.Vorha Committee Report; Lokpal and Lokayukta institutions.
- Students will be able to understand the meaning of legal professionalism and also in medical profession.
- Students will be able to understand the laws relating to offences against sexual harassment and scheduled tribes.

- Optional -VI- Land Law/Law Relating to International Trade Economics
- Land Law

After successful completion of this unit students will be able

- To learn about the concept of land, its use and benefits, rights and obligations of citizen and authority by govt. over the land and land administration.
- To learn about the powers, functions and limitations of revenue authorities and its impact on the land holders.
- To understand the importance of special land law and vitality of the disadvantaged communities.
- To learn about the trends in the real estate services and its importance.

- International Trade Economics
  - Study on origin, development and functioning of WTO as trade regulatory body.
  - Will understand the development of trade in international level.
  - Focus on concepts like FDI norms, TBT, SPS, Dumping and related areas
  - Shall appreciate the process and conditions of technology transfer, foreign
  - Collaborations, NRI investments, etc. Shall be in a position to know the policies and rules regulating international trade.
- Clinical Course -IV- Moot Court & Internship

This course of Moot Court exercise is designed to hone advocacy skills in the students. Moot Courts are simulation exercises geared up to endow students with facility in preparation of written submissions and planning, organising and marshalling arguments in the given time so as to convince the presiding officer.

PRINCIPAL
B.M.S COLLEGE OF LAW
Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi,
Bengaluru - 560 019.