→ Major General Naidu provided a comprehensive overview of the statistics concerning disabled people in India, emphasizing the need for a deeper understanding of their challenges. He highlighted the difficulties in accessing public infrastructures and the barriers faced by individuals with disabilities in their daily lives.

→ Ms. Bhumika Modh delved into the legal and policy aspects, enlightening the audience on the rights and legislation related to persons with disabilities. Drawing from her extensive research, she emphasized the importance of fostering an inclusive ecosystem through legal frameworks.

→ Ms. Prerna George provided an in-depth overview of the "Yes to Access" project. This initiative, spearheaded by APD, empowers individuals by providing real-time information about the accessibility of various places. The project's unique feature of user-generated content, allowing individuals to upload pictures and details of places, emerged as a powerful tool for promoting inclusivity.

The speakers collectively presented alarming statistics reflecting the scale of disabled people in India. These statistics underscored the urgency of addressing accessibility issues and advocating for the rights of persons with disabilities. The session shed light on the numerous challenges faced by individuals with disabilities in accessing public spaces. Major General Naidu and Prerna George elaborated on the physical and social barriers that limit accessibility and discussed the importance of creating a more inclusive environment.
