RESEARCH COMMITTEE

Guidelines for Sanction of Grants for Minor Research Project -2023

Objectives

B.M.S. College of Law in its pursuit of excellence in the field of multi-disciplinary research, has allocated fund for Minor Research Projects which will be undertaken by faculty members. The objective behind this initiative is to encourage faculty members to take up minor research project relating to contemporary issues in the field of law under the guidance of external experts of the Research Committee of the institution. Through Minor Research Project, faculty members can hone their research skill and make original contribution in the field of law.

Procedure for Financial Grants

The Minor Research Project Proposal shall be approved by the College Research Committee on the basis of the recommendations made by external experts of the committee and financial assistance upto ₹ 25,000/- will be sanctioned. At the initial state of the project, 50% of the sanctioned amount shall be given and the remaining 50% will be given after the submission of the final project report and financial expenditure statement.

Expenditure to meet the following

Books and Journals

The books and journals grant may be utilized to procure the essential books and journals related to the proposed research work. The books and journals acquired by the Principal Investigator under a Minor Research Project must be deposited to college library after the completion of the project which will be the college property.

Hiring of Services

This is meant for specialized technical work such as data analysis for which the college either has no infrastructure or services are available on payment basis.

Contingency

The admissible contingency grant may be utilized for photo-copying, typing, stationary, postage, telephone calls, internet, computation and printing needed for the project. Expenditure towards the audit fee may also be claimed under this head.

Special Needs

Assistance may be provided for any other special requirements in connection with the project which is not covered under any other 'Head' of assistance.

Travel and Field Work

The amount allocated under the head travel/field work is to be utilized for data collection and collection of other information such as documents and visit to libraries within the general

REPORT

Students Research Club of B.M.S. College of Law organised a guest lecture on the topic 'Research Article Writing' on 15/04/2024 for the students of II semester of 5 year B.A , B.Com & B.B.A LL.B. courses. Dr. Abhishek Sharma P, Independent Researcher & Advocate, Bangalore was invited as a resource person for the programme. The programme was graced by Prof.(Dr.) Anitha F.N.D'Souza, Principal and faculty members.

Dr. Abhishek spoke about the significance of legal writing and oratory skills. She stressed that both writing and speaking are forms of communication, they differ in key ways. Writing allows for more thoughtful expression and deeper audience engagement, but speaking is more immediate and conversational. Successful communication often requires mastering both written and verbal skills. He also meticulously dealt with importance of legal research writing for students. Dr. Abhishek explained about sources for legal research like journals, online database, scholarly books, conference proceedings, etc which will help students to hone their research skills. He explained about literature review, stages of legal research, research methodology, research findings and suggestions. He urged students to develop research mind set and to improve written communication to become a good researcher.

Dr. Abhishek discussed about analytical research, research publications, significance of legal research for lawyers, research writing & employment, ethics in research, data collects and tools of collection of data.

At the end, he guided students to cultivate a habit of writing one page write up on any legal issue to improve their writing skills. The session was very interactive and informative for faculty and students.

This is the third National conference, specifically targeted to young scholars. Indic thought and wisdom has now been discussed in various forums and conferences. It is high time, now that we put this into action. The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 captures this spirit and has given a much-needed thrust not only for the inclusion of Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) in the national curriculum and pedagogy but also for promoting authentic research and innovation in the domain to address the challenges and concerns of the 21st century. Therefore, this conference has been specially curated, towards implementing and integrating Indic wisdom into regular curricula and encouraging and guiding, young scholars and researchers.

The 3-day National Youth Conference on Indian Knowledge Systems (NYCIKS) hosted and organised by Chinmaya Vishwa Vidyapeeth in collaboration with IKS Division of Ministry of Education, Govt. of India is a step in this direction.
